Direct. Human. Structured. Built for real change.

WHO I HELP

Adults 18 and over working through:

- Anxiety & overthinking
- Depression
- Trauma & PTSD
- Relationship & family strain
- Burnout & chronic stress
- Life & career transitions

Particular depth with: veterans and military families, first responders, men's mental health, and high-stress professionals.

HOW TO REFER

- 1 Give the client my number or email, or hand them this sheet.
- 2 Or have your office contact me directly with the client's name and number (with their consent). I follow up within one business day.
- 3 Every referred client starts with a free 15-minute phone consultation. If I'm not the right fit, I'll say so and help them find someone who is.

I keep referring providers' trust by being reachable, responsive, and honest about fit.

WHAT REFERRED CLIENTS CAN EXPECT

Structured, practical work, usually weekly. We name the pattern keeping the anxiety, stress, or conflict alive, build the skills to regulate it, and practice responding differently. Clients know what we're working on and why, from the first session.
